

restrain such corporation from transacting any business in this State, and the Court before which such proceedings shall be begun, shall be authorized to make such order or decree, and to issue such process in the premises to enforce compliance by such corporation with the provisions of this statute, or to restrain the transaction of business by such corporation in this State as it may deem proper.

1892, ch. 109, sec. 85 g.

100. The amount of money which any corporation shall have on deposit, or hold in trust, or loan at any time, shall not exceed ten times the amount of its paid-up capital and surplus, and its outstanding loans shall not at any time exceed said amount; but any such corporation authorized to receive court deposits may, at any time, receive on deposit and loan out any money which may be deposited with it by order of any of the courts of this State, notwithstanding such limitation.

Ibid. sec. 85 h.

101. Any willful false swearing, relative to the report and examination hereinbefore provided for, by any person shall be deemed perjury, and be subject to the prosecutions and punishments for that offense now or hereafter provided for by law.

Ibid. sec. 85 i.

102. Whenever it shall be proven to the satisfaction of said treasurer that any such corporation has surrendered its charter or ceased to do business in this State, and has liquidated all its indebtedness to depositors and creditors, he shall surrender to such corporation any deposit which may be so held by him in trust for the benefit of the depositors and creditors of any such corporation.

Ibid. sec. 85 k.

103. It shall be the duty of said treasurer to report to the general assembly, at each regular session, a summary of the state and condition of every trust or other corporation required to report to him or to be by him examined; and such summary shall give the date to which such reports refer, the amount of capital held by each of said corporations, the whole amount of its debts and liabilities, the total sum of its resources and such other information as he may deem useful. Any corporation making the reports and deposits herein provided for shall not be required to make any report to or submit to any examination by the insurance commissioner.
